Under the provisions of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (USA), the objects and purposes for which the corporation is formed are as follows:

- a) To receive, acquire, hold, manage, administer and expend property and funds for religious, charitable and eleemosynary purposes, including the assistance and support of charitable institutions, associations and undertakings.

- b) To take property and funds, by will, gift or otherwise, and with or without specification of any charitable or eleemosynary purpose, but in case no religious, charitable or eleemosynary purpose is specified, the property or funds so received must, nevertheless, be held upon the trust that the same must be used for religious, charitable or eleemosynary purposes. The corporation shall not have the power to take or hold property or funds for any purpose other than a religious, charitable or eleemosynary use.
- c) To hold, in its name and right, real and personal property of every nature and description without limitation as to extent, character or amount and with all the powers of control, management, investment, change and disposal incident to the absolute ownership of property or funds by a private person, subject only to the terms of particular trusts and to the general trust that all its properties and funds shall be held for religious, charitable and eleemosynary purposes.
- d) To borrow money, either upon or without security, giving such personal promissory notes or other evidence of indebtedness and such pledges, mortgages or other instruments of hypothecation as it may be advised.
- e) To appoint any pay officers and agents to conduct and administer the affairs of the corporation, but no member of the board of trustees shall receive any compensation.
- f) To adopt bylaws prescribing the duties of the officers and agents of the corporation, the detail of the organization, the time and manner of its meetings and any and all detail incident to its organization and the efficient conduct and management of its affairs.
- g) To do any and all things which a natural person might do necessary and desirable for the general purpose for which the organization is organized.
- h) To receive and use funds obtained from private donations, devises and bequests and from all lawful sources to be applied for religious, charitable and benevolent purposes in assisting the poor, the sick and needy, and various charitable home, institutions or associate service centers and other charitable organizations operating with or assisted by this corporation.
- i) To erect and build a church or churches, a manse or manses and Sunday School buildings in connection with said church or churches.
- j) To do all things necessary to be done for carrying out the above named objects and purposes, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States of America and the State of Nevada.

The exercise of powers of the corporation, with the right to delegate to officers and agents the performance of duties and the exercise of powers, shall be vested in the board of directors.

8.

That the matter of controlling, managing, investing and disposing of the property of the corporation for the purpose of earning an income therefrom as distinguished from the matter of applying property and funds to charitable and eleemosynary purposes, shall be exclusively in a committee designated or appointed by the Board of Directors including at least one member from the Board of Directors .

9.

That the matter of controlling, managing, investing and disposing of the property of the corporation for the purpose of earning an income therefrom may be delegated either in whole or in part to one or more trust companies or banks duly authorized to conduct a trust or banking business in this state.

10.

The expenses of the corporation may be apportioned to the extent necessary against the various trust funds and property held by it, in the manner which seems just and equitable to the corporation, and the meeting of such expenses shall be deemed a religious, charitable or eleemosynary purpose.

11.

The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to religious and charitable purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this organization shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer or member thereof or to the benefit of any private persons. Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment of, or provision for payment of, all debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed to the PRESBYTERY OF NEVADA, a religious corporation, if it is then in existence and exempt under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, but if it is not then is existence or exempt, to its successor corporation which is affiliated with and under the religious principles and beliefs of the PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (USA) and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. If that organization is not exempt under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, then to another organization which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable and religious purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. As used herein, Section 501 (c) (3) shall also included successor section in later Codes.

These articles may be amended by a two thirds vote of the members present at any properly called and noticed meeting of the corporation.
